

Communications have been received from Dr. John Loudon, Pernambuco, Mr. King, Irvine, Mr. Dick, Mr. Thomson, Mr. M'Nab, Callander, Dr. Ritchie, Dr. Bryce, and Mr. Logan, New Lanark.

---

The following Books have been received since the Publication of No. 13.

Lecture, Introductory to a Course of Clinical Surgery, delivered to the Students of the Glasgow Royal Infirmary. By M. S. Buchanan, M.D. (Not published.)

Dr. M'Cormack on the Moral and Physical Condition of the Lower Classes.

Belfast Library of Useful Knowledge, No. 1.

Belfast Co-operative Advocate, Nos. 1 and 2.

Mr. Geohegan's Farther Remarks on Hernia. Dublin.

A Manual of Analytical Chemistry. By Henry Rosé, Professor of Chemistry at Berlin. Translated by John Griffin. London, 1831.

On the Physiology of the Fœtus, Liver, and Spleen. By George Calvert Holland, M.D.

London Medical and Surgical Journal, for January, February, and March, 1831. [In exchange.]

London Medical and Physical Journal, for March, 1831. [In exchange.]

Medico-Chirurgical Review, for April, 1831. [In exchange.]

Phrenological Journal, for March, 1831. [In exchange.]

London Medical Gazette, 12 Numbers, for February, March, and April. [In exchange.]

---

The article on Injuries of the Head is in type, but has been delayed till next Number for want of room. We are sorry that the Review of Mr. M'Nish's work on Sleep, and also that of Dr. Combe on Mental Derangement, are unavoidably postponed on account of the variety of original articles which required to be inserted in our present Number.

Our readers will perceive that we have again exceeded our prescribed limits.

---

Communications, and Books for Review or Announcement, may be addressed to the Editors, at the Publishers, Messrs. Griffin & Co. No. 64, Hutcheson Street, Glasgow, Postage and Carriage free; or in Edinburgh, London, and Dublin, to the Agents named on the Cover.

---

Erratum in last No.

At p. 30, line 28, for foramen ovale, read inter-auricular opening.