

Lieutenant Hogg, who was a son of Mr. J. W. Hogg, Parkhill Drive, Rutherglen, graduated at Glasgow University in 1907, and was in practice in Paisley before entering the army. He was at home on leave when he fell a victim to the prevailing epidemic.

---

MR. ARCHIBALD NEILSON, J.P., L.R.C.P. EDIN., L.F.P.S. GLASG.
GLASGOW.

MR. ARCHIBALD NEILSON, who died on 19th September, at the advanced age of 94 years, was for a great many years a very well known figure in the East End of Glasgow. Mr. Neilson qualified in 1865, and for many years resided at 10 Sommerville Place, where he conducted a busy practice. He took an active interest in municipal affairs, and sat in the Town Council for several years as one of the representatives of the Fourth Ward, becoming a member of several committees in which his professional knowledge was valuable. He was kindly by nature, and always ready with a word of encouragement for a junior practitioner.

---

REV. DANIEL M'NEILL, M.D. GLASG.

WE regret to record the death of the Rev. Daniel M'Neill, which occurred on 15th October at 14 Upper Gray Street, Edinburgh. Dr. M'Neill was educated at Glasgow University, where he studied divinity and medicine with a view to the foreign mission field. He qualified in medicine in 1878, and received the degree of M.D. in 1892. For nearly half a century he was minister of the Free—now the U.F.—Church at Holm, Orkney, where he also practised medicine. He died at the age of 78.

---